To help you complete your application and have the best chance of taking home one of our coveted trophies we have put together some guidance to consider when filling out your application.

TOP TIPS

- Give practical examples.
- Include employee testimony if you can.
- Additional supportive information is welcome e.g media articles, social media content, other evidence of your actions.
- Please give comprehensive answers – pay attention to the word limits and try to give as much relevant detail as possible.
- Explain what inspires you about being a Living Wage employer or working for a Living Wage employer.
- Tell us about any other interesting and relevant things your organisation has been doing.

Employee Choice example

"I’m a full-time wheelchair user and was recently able to purchase my first home as a direct result of earning a real Living Wage. I never thought this would be possible when working in minimum wage jobs."

"For the first time in my adult life, I am no longer reliant on disability benefits to supplement my wage."

"Since our employer became Living Wage accredited, my colleagues and I have a much improved work-life balance. We no longer live month-to-month and are able to live a good life while still saving for our futures."

Detailed application example

Opportunities were sought from the outset to help Living Wage Scotland spread the positive word. We welcomed a Scottish Government Minister to our manufacturing site for a formal visit, resulting in local and/or national media coverage.

We have spoken at many events, including our local Business Chamber and COP26 about our social, environmental and economic responsibility ethos which includes promoting the benefits of being a Living Wage employer.
